

Eubie Enright has been a servant of the Lord all of her life. From the time she arrived in Miami she was a Baptist member of a church in Overtown, where she loyally served as an usher for 20 years. In 1960, Ms. Enright became a member of New Providence Missionary Baptist Church, where she joined the choir. She was a choir member for many decades.

We honor Eubie Enright for a legacy of service and inspiration. She credits her Lord and Savior for keeping her well during these last 104 years. Her life is a testimony to each of us. I joyfully celebrate with Ms. Eubie Enright as she continues a purposeful life of love.

DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE AND

2011

SPEECH OF

HON. CLIFF STEARNS

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, April 7, 2011

Mr. STEARNS. Madam Speaker, I rise today in strong support of H.R. 1363 because it provides funding for the Department of Defense for the remainder of the current fiscal year and cuts an additional $12 billion in discretionary spending. This bill is just one step in significantly reducing spending and reining in our historic deficits. Unfortunately, President Obama and Senator REID have not made a similar commitment to get our fiscal house in order.

We must remember that the reason we are in this situation in the first place is that the previous Democrat majority never got around to passing a budget for fiscal year 2011. Let's remember that Democrats controlled the House, the Senate and the White House, yet they shirked their duty by not even presenting a budget plan, leaving mountains of debt for others to deal with.

I urge my colleagues to support this important troop funding legislation, and let's continue down the road of fiscal responsibility.

HONORING SAWYER A. HANWAY

HON. SAM GRAVES

OF MISSOURI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, April 8, 2011

Mr. GRAVES of Missouri. Mr. Speaker, I proudly pause to recognize Sawyer A. Hanway. Sawyer is a very special young man who has exemplified the finest qualities of citizenship and leadership by taking an active part in the Boy Scouts of America, Troop 180, and earning the most prestigious award of Eagle Scout.

Sawyer has been very active with his troop, participating in many scout activities. Over the many years Sawyer has been involved with scouting, he has not only earned numerous merit badges, but also the respect of his family, peers, and community. Most notably, Sawyer has contributed to his community through his Eagle Scout project.

Mr. Speaker, I proudly ask you to join me in commending Sawyer A. Hanway for his accomplishments with the Boy Scouts of America and for his efforts put forth in achieving the highest distinction of Eagle Scout.

RECOGNIZING THE WORK OF MS.
SHARI B. KAPLAN FOR HER EX-TRAORDINARY EFFORTS IN ABUSE TREATMENT FOR CHIL-DREN AND ADULTS

HON. ALCEE L. HASTINGS

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, April 8, 2011

Mr. HASTINGS of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize Ms. Shari B. Kaplan for her extraordinary efforts in abuse treatment for children and adults. She has worked tirelessly through her "Can't Tell Foundation" to give hope to victims of domestic and sexual abuse and children who are plagued by bullying. Her foundation has been a pioneer in treatment for victims and relies on several methods to allow victims to cope. Such practices include self-defense, music and movement, Qi Gong and yoga, nutrition, mentoring, improvisational work, meditation, individual therapy, family therapy, group therapy and support.

Ms. Kaplan herself was a victim of bullying and has experienced the personal pain of abuse with her closest family. She was in a horrific bike crash when she was young that left her with physical injuries that ultimately lead to bullying when she was in school. Additionally, her children were victims of abuse at the hands of her nanny's 13-year-old son. Using the wisdom she gained from her own pain and experience in helping her children cope, she went on to help others deal with their pain and create prevention policies against abuse in all its forms. Her more recent goal is to raise 6.5 million dollars to help build a treatment facility in Boca Raton, Florida.

Abuse and bullying has become an epidemic in this country. Suicide is the second major cause of death in teens and young adults ages 13–24. In addition, government statistics show that 32 percent of 12- to 18-year-olds say they have been bullied.

Mr. Speaker, I am proud to recognize and stand with a woman who has decided to stand up against abuse and bullying. Ms. Shari B. Kaplan has truly dedicated herself to this important cause and I wish to give her my full support.

HONORING JAMES AND JEAN CANTRELL

HON. SANFORD D. BISHOP, JR.

OF GEORGIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, April 8, 2011

Mr. BISHOP of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor James and Jean Cantrell, a couple who have dedicated themselves to their community and each other. The Cantrells were married in Lagrange, Georgia on April 8, 1951, and on Friday, April 8th, 2011 they will celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary.

Mr. Cantrell is the son of the late Elonzo and Bessie Cantrell. Mrs. Cantrell is the daughter of the late Douglas and Jewel Wright. They have four children, eight grandchildren and two great grandchildren. What a wonderful example of family values they represent.

Mr. and Mrs. Cantrell have proven themselves to be dedicated community servants. Both have been deeply involved in positive civic and social activities over the years. Mr. Cantrell served his country faithfully in the United States Army. Mrs. Cantrell started a movement in the 1960's that was called Housewives for Fair Prices. This movement boycotted stores across Georgia that charged exorbitant prices for milk, resulting in lower costs for families.

The Cantrell's have been active in Georgia politics for almost half a century. Mr. Cantrell served as Third Congressional District Chairman for the Democratic Party of Georgia while Jimmy Carter was President. Mrs. Cantrell served as the chairman of the Muscogee County Democratic Committee and the first woman to run for Mayor of Columbus, Georgia.

However, their pursuits of public service and causes have been not just for themselves, but notably for others. When the Governor of Georgia decided to close the Warm Springs Hospital which was the Georgia rehabilitation site and home for the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt, both Cantrells led a petition drive to stop this action. As a result, the Governor changed his mind and the hospital remained open. They started the first St. Jude Children's radiothon in Columbus, Georgia and for 25 years it has been a stellar event, helping to raise millions of dollars for children with cancer.

Moreover, through all of their family and community involvement, they have managed to build and grow a successful business called Action Buildings and Truck Styles. For over 32 years it has been one of the largest outdoor building manufacturing companies in Georgia and Alabama, with a manufacturing plant and 10 retail store locations. This is truly a family business and over the last few years, their four sons and other family have been involved in this enterprise.

Throughout their lives, James and Jean Cantrell have been devoted Christians, attending Temple Baptist Church for many years. Their kindness and generosity exemplify their faith and their lives are truly God's love in action.

Mr. Speaker, I cannot think of another couple who have given so much of themselves to so many than James and Jean Cantrell. I cherish their friendship and support, without which, my own career in public service may never have begun nor survived. Therefore, on the occasion of their 60th wedding anniversary, I am proud to salute them for their dedication to each other, their family, their church, and their community. We are all blessed that they have touched and enriched us all so fully. May God continue to bless them, as they have blessed us, in the weeks, months and years to come.
